Hey guys,

I put the forum back up so that we can try to discuss the future of the MFFL. You can post without logging in, just sign your name at the bottom of the post.

As stated in before, we're kind of in a hard place in that our stat service that we've used for the last 10+ years has just disappeared. We're in the process of trying to find a new stat service, but haven't found one that isn't insanely expensive.

One alternative is to go with a fantasy football service, Cecil has suggested myfantasyleague.com . They would basically run all the stats and such for us, and we would pay them to do it. Of course the problem here is that we would lose the continuity of having it on the MFFL site.

The floor is open to discussion
